I'm quite chunky, but can still crank like a disease if I say so myself and certainly found all Montane garments much smaller than the likes of TNF and Mountain Equipment. Very impressed with them though, my shell and belay jackets have taken an utter doing on the mixed and they're holding up well.

Sizing Sizing is your call but it's pretty normally sized I reckon - not an athletic cut. I would suggest the jacket is slightly oversized to be a belay jacket (actually in a similar way that the Montane Flux is). If you are a climber or going out lightweight and not stopping long, I think your normal size would be correct.
