Medicine River Ch. 4 to 7 - WordPress.com

Based on his own definition of the term in "Godzilla vs. Post-Colonial," Thomas King has created a piece of associational literature in his 1989 novel Medicine River. He has done so not only through his focus on daily, seemingly mundane human interactions, but also by alternately focusing on ...

Thomas King's Medicine River as Associational Literature ...

I found Medicine River by Thomas King to be 'laugh out loud' funny. A sort of day in the life story is told while the main characters' history with the community of Medicine River is told through a series of flashbacks. In the flashbacks we see a fair amount of sadness in the lives of Will, his brother James and his Mother.
