I've just done MST121 this year and, yeah, you can definitely do it from GCSE maths if it's still fresh in your mind. A few weeks before the course starts, they give you quite a substantial booklet with lots of "things you need to know" type stuff, which was largely just GCSE material with some new things thrown in (which get covered again in the real course anyway).

The final assessment is a multiple choice examination paper. I found that this examination was quite straight forward, as long as you had covered all of the subjects within the MST124 module and that you prepare for the exam. Finally, the MST124-Essential Mathematics 01 tutor in 2015/2016 was Jill Friedlander.
